

John Krill
Chairman, Woodstock Hydro Services Inc.
Director, Operations Support, Reliance Home Comfort

John Krill was born and raised in the Waterloo Region. He is a Professional Engineer, graduating from University of Waterloo in 1985 with a BAsC in Civil Engineering. John also holds an MBA from Edinburgh Business School, obtained in 2000. He spent approximately 11 years with Union Gas as a construction engineer, branch manager and mergers acquisitions team member living all over Southwestern Ontario from Cayuga and Hamilton to Chatham and London. For five years, John worked as a contractor and sub-contractor in home construction in the Waterloo region. He also spent two years with the Canadian Gas Association in Toronto.

Currently, John Krill is the first and only Chair of the Board of Directors of Woodstock Hydro Services, and is also employed with Reliance Home Comfort where for the last four years in an Operations capacity of which R&D and Technology Development are a focal point. John has lived in London for the past nine years, and has been married for 23 years to Kamla Krill. They have two children, Eric age 15 years attends Mother Teresa High School in London and Peter age 19 years attends Manchester College in Indiana as a freshman on an academic scholarship to play NCAA division 3 basketball.