

Earth Day at Home

for Older Kids!

Spot the following items inside your home, in your front or backyard, out your window or from your balcony to complete this environmental scavenger hunt! Make sure to check off the boxes when completed!

- Spot an insect that helps spread pollen! (ex. bee, butterfly, beetle)
What insect did you find? _____
- Spot a bicycle!
Where is your favourite place to ride your bike? _____
- Spot a deciduous tree species that is native to Canada! (ex. Maple, Oak, Birch, Elm)
Which species did you find? _____
- Spot some litter on the ground.
How do you think it got there? _____
- Spot a building that has solar panels on the roof or a great spot where solar panels could go!
- Spot a coniferous tree species that is native to Canada! (ex. Pine, Cedar, Spruce, Fir)
What species did you find? _____
- Spot a catchbasin where rain water flows to.
Where does the water go from there? _____?
- Spot an animal species native to Ontario!
What animal did you see? _____
- Spot a rain garden! (a garden designed to trap water so it can soak into the ground, instead of into the catchbasin in the street)
- Spot a flower!
What type of flower is it? _____

Environmental scavenger hunt completed!

Score: __/10

Learn more! Every Londoner can use Project Neutral's carbon calculator to see how their household can be more environmentally friendly.
www.projectneutral.org/london

CityGreen
Working together for sustainability

