

REVISED NOTICE OF PLANNING APPLICATION

Zoning By-Law Amendment

Amendment to Zoning By-law to Align with The London Plan

File: Z-8909

Applicant: City of London

What is Proposed?

The Zoning By-law include references to which land use designation a Zone implements. The London Plan uses different names and descriptions for land uses. This change would add the name used in The London Plan to the Zoning By-law.

Possible Amendments to sections of the Zoning By-law to delete references to the specific land use designations and schedules of the 1989 Official Plan and replace them with the specific Place Types and maps of The London Plan.

Requested Zoning By-law Amendment

Possible amendment to Zoning By-law Z.-1 to DELETE references to the specific land use designations and Map Schedules of the 1989 Official Plan that are intended to be implemented by the respective Zone. Possible amendment to various subsections of the Zoning By-law to ADD the Place Types and Maps of the new Official Plan (The London Plan) that will be implemented by the respective Zone.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of the Official Plan, London's long-range planning document. There are no proposed changes to London Plan Place Types as part of this Zoning Application.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

The City reviews and makes decisions on planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. The ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision making process are summarized below. For more detailed information about the public process, go to the Participating in the Planning Process page at london.ca.

Reply to this Notice of Application

We are inviting your comments on the requested changes at this time so that we can consider them as we review the application and prepare a report that will include Planning Services staff's recommendation to the City's Planning and Environment Committee.

Attend a Future Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested zoning changes on a date that has not yet been scheduled. The City will send you another notice inviting you to attend this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will also be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. The Planning and Environment Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Secretary of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
